

Two New Modules Launched

NWCPHP's new Logic Models and Outcome Measurement shows you how to plan for and measure increased performance in your local health jurisdiction.

More...

Cause and Effect in Epidemiology discusses seven guidelines that can be used to determine if a specific agent or activity causes a particular health outcome. More...

Hot Topics in Preparedness Archives Now Available on CD-ROM

Topics are grouped by year and sessions from 2004-2006 are available. More...

Summer Institute 2008

Save-the-date:
August 11-15

There are many excellent reasons to send your staff to the 2008 Summer Institute for Public Health Practice in Seattle. For example:

"Loved being here! Leaving enthused with new skills, perspective to take back to work."

More...

Events

11-13-2007 Weapons of Mass Destruction: A Coordinated Response Effort Hot Topics
Web conferencing

12-03-2007 25th Annual Alaska Health Summit Sheraton Hotel, Anchorage, AK

12-04-2007 When Normal Isn't Normal: RSV Outbreak in Arctic Alaska Hot Topics
Web conferencing

03-03-2008 Oregon Public Health Workforce Development Conference
Portland, OR

News

NWCPHP partners with Public Health - Seattle & King County in HHS Health Care Facilities Partnership Program. More...

Fall/Winter 2007 issue of Northwest Public Health journal focuses on the new elderly. More...

Chuck Treser wins Outstanding Sanitarian award for 2007. More...

Betty Bekemeier launches new advanced practice environmental health nursing certificate program. Prepare yourself for leadership in improving our responses to environmental conditions. More...